1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 THE COURT: Good morning again. This
3 is what we have been referring to as Phase 2 of 4 the jury selection process. The first order of 5 business here is for your Prothonotary, Ms.
6 Immel, to administer an oath to you in which
7 you agree to truthfully answer the questions
8 that are placed to you as jurors. So I'm going 9 to ask you, please, to stand and raise your
10 right hand and either swear -- you can either
11 swear or affirm as you wish.

12 (Whereupon, the prospective jury panel 13 was sworn.)

14 THE COURT: And you may be seated.
15 Let me begin by introducing to you the people
16 seated here in front. On behalf of the Office
17 of the Attorney General of Pennsylvania, Mr.
18 Frank Fina, at the end of the table.

19 MR. FINA: Good morning.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Joseph McGettigan.

21 MR. MCGETTIGAN: Good morning, ladies
22 and gentlemen.

23 THE COURT: For the defense, Mr.
24 Joseph Amendola.

25 MR. AMENDOLA: Morning, folks.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Karl Rominger

2 MR. ROMINGER: Good morning.

3 THE COURT: And Mr. Sandusky.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Good morning.

5 THE COURT: I'm about to ask you a
6 series of questions. All of the questions in 7 this phase require basically just a yes-no
8 answer, so just acknowledge by holding up your 9 card. You all have those numbers, right? And 10 so I don't want you to answer the questions any
11 more specifically. You don't have to tell us
12 your name. Just hold up those cards, and then,
13 when we go into the one-on-one questioning,
14 we'll know who answered what to what question
15 and there may be some follow-ups. Okay?
16 Everybody with me? All right.

17 First of all, when I spoke in the 18 large courtroom, was there anybody that had any 19 difficulty hearing me? Did anybody have any 20 trouble hearing me in there?

21 (No response.)

22 THE COURT: Okay. Did anybody have
23 any trouble seeing me, any sight impediments
24 that any of you might have?

25 (No response.)

1           THE COURT: Okay. Now, the trial in
2 this case will start at 8:30 or nine in the
3 morning. We will go till noon, take a break
4 for lunch. We'll go till 4:30 or five in the 5 afternoon. We'll have a break midmorning and 6 mid-afternoon. Is there any one of you for 7 whom that would be physically difficult for you
8 to sit and serve that length of time?

9           (Show of cards.)

10          THE COURT: The benches in the jury
11 box are considerably more comfortable than 12 those benches you were sitting on in the 13 courtroom. They're more like this, those lucky
14 people over here, but if that would be
15 difficult, would you just hold your card up?

16          (Show of cards.)

17          THE COURT: I'm sorry. Just keep
18 holding them up till -- okay. Thank you.

19          Now I am going to ask that each of you
20 will stand in turn and tell us the community
21 where you live. We don't need to know your
22 address, just State College, Bellefonte,
23 wherever it is you happen to live, whether you
24 are employed and, if so, where you are 25 employed, if you're retired, where you worked

1 before your retirement, marital status, single,
2 married, divorced or long-term relationship,
3 and if you have children, how many, boys,
4 girls, ages. Okay? I'll remind you. You
5 don't have to remember all of that. Okay. So
6 we'll start here and just go down the front
7 row, and I have to look at my own list here.
8 Your community and employment, we'll start with 9 that.

10 And just hold your card up so we make
11 sure we -- okay. Thank you.

3 other or any member of your immediate family --
4 that would be basically children or in-laws,
5 spouses of children -- do any of those group of

8 (Show of cards.)

9 THE COURT: Okay. Got it.

10 JUROR: Does that include relatives

12 THE COURT: No, just you or immediate
13 family, or a spouse and immediate family.

14 JUROR: How about retired from Penn
15 State?

16 THE COURT: Yes. Okay. Those of you
17 that are retired from Penn State, would you
18 hold your cards -- I know there were several of 19 you that --

20 (Show of cards.)

21 THE COURT: Just keep holding it up
22 till we make sure counsel get these numbers
23 down. Would it be helpful if I read them?

24 MR. MCGETTIGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. 0091. 6227. 5895.

1 0024. 4106. 5573. Okay. Are you with me?

2 MR. MCGETTIGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Of that group of
4 spouse, children, significant others, immediate
5 family, employed by Second Mile?

6 JUROR: If you volunteer, does that
7 count?

8 THE COURT: Okay. Do you volunteer at 9 Second Mile?

10 JUROR: Yeah.

11 THE COURT: Okay. 2305 and 5895. Do
12 any of you work for or own or have an interest
13 in a business that has a significant business
14 relationship either with Penn State or Second
15 Mile?

16 JUROR: The Walmart I work at, the
17 manager of the store helped out at Second Mile.
18 Does that count?

19 THE COURT: That's okay.

20 JUROR: What about Penn State
21 students?

22 THE COURT: No, I meant a business
23 relationship.

24 JUROR: Okay.

25 THE COURT: If you work for a company

1 that does a lot of business with Penn State.

2 JUROR: We deal with Penn State
3 students. Does that count?

4 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. I'm sorry.
5 I misunderstood your question. And where do
6 you work?

7 JUROR: The Apartment Store. We rent
8 apartments to --

9 THE COURT: Okay. And your card
10 number? 0688. I think that's what it is, or 11 is it 8890?

12 (Laughter.)

13 THE COURT: Okay. Do any of you or in
14 that family group that I mentioned work for a
15 child welfare agency such as Children and Youth
16 Services or similar programs that provide
17 services to children?

18 JUROR NO. 3097: What about as a
19 volunteer for Big Brother Big Sister?

20 THE COURT: Okay. Anybody else? And 21 your number was --

22 JUROR NO. 3097: 3097.

23 THE COURT: 3097.

24 JUROR NO. 0783: I'm not sure. I have
25 a foster grandson that our daughter has --

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 JUROR NO. 0783: -- who is from Hope
3 for Kids.

4 THE COURT: All right. And you're
5 0783.

6 JUROR: Okay.

7 THE COURT: Right? Okay. Okay. Any
8 of that group of people employed by a police
9 department or other law-enforcement agency?
10 0574. We'll do the follow-up questioning when 11 we get in there. And 4781

12 JUROR: A brother-in-law and a sister.

13 THE COURT: Close enough, 5688 and 14 6575.

15 JUROR NO. 6988: CIA?

16 THE COURT: 6988. Okay.

17 JUROR NO. 0091: Question.

18 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

19 JUROR NO. 0091: Daughter who works in
20 another state with the sheriff's department.

21 THE COURT: Fine, 0091. Okay. All
22 right. Anybody employed by a law firm or by an 23 attorney in that group of people?

24 (No response.)

25 THE COURT: Anyone in that group of

1 people employed in a victims services agency or
2 a provider of services to victims?

3 (No response.)

4 THE COURT: Okay. Is any one of --
5 any of you, your spouse, significant other or 6 immediate family member, to your knowledge, a
7 financial contributor to or volunteer with 8 either Penn State or The Second Mile? That
9 would be, you know, financial contributor,
10 volunteer, worker, if you know. 6227. 5895.
11 0782. 6988. 5573. 3097. 3318. 4311. Was I
12 doing this too fast? Are you getting -- oh,
13 I'm sorry, 3818. Thank you. Are you with me,
14 counsel? Am I doing that too fast?

15 MR. MCGETTIGAN: I think we got it.
16 Thank you, Your Honor.

17 JUROR: I just have a question. If
18 you contribute money to Penn State for football
19 tickets --

20 THE COURT: No, that wouldn't count.

21 JUROR: Okay.

22 THE COURT: I meant, you know, a
23 financial contributor, in that sense.

24 JUROR: Okay. Okay.

25 THE COURT: Is any one of you, your

1 spouse, significant other or immediate family
2 member, what is known under Pennsylvania law as
3 a mandatory reporter? You know, that is a
4 person under state law, because of their
5 employment or other professional status, that 6 has a duty to report suspected child abuse to 7 governmental authorities. Teachers would be
8 within that group, some school people, 3719.

9 JUROR: Retired teacher.

10 THE COURT: 1032. 5688. 4106. 2197.

11 JUROR: I don't know. I volunteer as
12 a coach at the middle school, so I don't know
13 if I fall under that or not.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Well, we'll follow
15 up. 6575. 0783.

16 JUROR: My husband is a minister.
17 Would that --

18 THE COURT: Maybe. In some
19 circumstances he can be. 1868. 2726.

20 JUROR NO. 0574: I guess my occupation
21 would
22 be --

23 THE COURT: Excuse me?

24 JUROR NO. 0574: I guess my occupation
25 would be that, because I'm a Special Deputy

1 U.S. Marshal.

2 THE COURT: Okay. 0574. Okay. This
3 has to do with legal representation. To your
4 knowledge, have you, your spouse, any
5 significant other or member of your immediate 6 family, ever been represented by any of the 7 four attorneys that I have introduced you to 8 earlier?

9 (No response.)

10 THE COURT: Okay. Do any of you know
11 Mr. Gerald Sandusky, also known as Jerry
12 Sandusky, personally? 0024. 5895. 0782.

13 Do any of you personally know Mrs.
14 Dorothy Sandusky, or Dottie Sandusky? 0782.
15 0024.

16 Now, projected on the screen, if this
17 works, is a list of people. Now, I'm going to 18 ask counsel to read that you to. Maybe if you
19 could turn off the first set of lights, that 20 may be helpful, and maybe the next set, too.

21 MR. MCGETTIGAN: Yes, as long as
22 they're the same list. I'll read them, Your 23 Honor, if you'd like.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Now, I'm not going
25 to go through this one at a time, but if you

1 see somebody on that list that you know, when
2 we go through the list, just remember and hold
3 your card up, and when we do the one-on-one,
4 I'll ask you who it is that you knew. And 5 we'll have that list in the other room so that
6 you can refresh your memory. So Mr. McGettigan
7 is just going to read the names. If you know
8 anybody, when we get done, I'll ask you to hold
9 up the cards.

10 Okay, Mr. McGettigan, go ahead.

11 MR. MCGETTIGAN: Thank you, Your

2           THE COURT:   Okay.

3           MR. MCGETTIGAN:  Thank you, Your
4 Honor.

5           THE COURT:  Those names are only in
6 alphabetical order.  That's the only rational
7 basis, and it's not necessarily so that all of 8 those people are going to testify.  Those are,
9 you know, potential witnesses.  Now, if anyone
10 knew any of those names, would you just hold up
11 your cards, please, and I'll start reading off
12 the numbers?  0783.  3719.  6227.  0091.  0782.
13 5895.  5692.  2980, is that the right number?
14 Did I -- okay.  2197.  1868.  5573.  3097.
15 3818.  2865.  5063.  1725.  2198.

16           Do we have the other list?

17           MR. FINA:  I do.  I just put it up
18 there.

19           THE COURT:  Okay.  Do you want to do
20 these, Mr. Amendola?

21           MR. AMENDOLA:  Yes.  Your Honor, do
22 you have the list?  I don't -- I gave them the 23 list.

24           THE COURT:  Do you have the hard
25 paper?

1 MR. AMENDOLA: Folks, I'm going to
2 read the names of potential witnesses, and
3 again, just as you have done with the previous
4 list, just hold up your cards till we're done.

5 JUROR: Louder, please.

6 THE COURT: Yes. Okay. I'll just
7 repeat what he said. He's going to read off
8 these names, and I'll ask him to speak up, and 9 the same process. When we get through the 10 list, I'll ask you to hold your cards up, okay?
11 So just speak up as loudly as you can.

12 MR. AMENDOLA: I will, Your Honor.

8 Mark Yakicic.

9 Robert Yakicic.

10 John Yecina.

11 Tom Young.

12 THE COURT: Now, as I indicated to you
13 in the list previously read, that doesn't mean
14 all these people are going to testify, but the 15 question is whether or not you are personally
16 acquainted with anybody on that list.

17 JUROR: Does that mean now or at any 18 time?

19 THE COURT: Any time. Any time.

20 0783. 1032. 0024. 3719. 6227. 5688. 0091.

21 0782. 5895. 2980. 6988. 5692. 2197. 5573.

22 3097. 1427. 3818. 2865. 2198. 1725. 4311.

23 The last question for this phase: The
24 trial in this case will start on Monday
25 morning. We anticipate it will last three

1 weeks; that is, till the end of June. I'm
2 going to ask whether that is going to create
3 any serious personal hardship on you or your 4 family. I'm going to remind you what I said in 5 the courtroom. I'm not talking about mere
6 inconvenience. This is genuine hardship. So
7 if anybody has any, I will consider them now.

8 Yes, sir. 0024. Yes, sir.

9 JUROR NO. 0024: I'm supposed to take
10 a pill every morning, two pills, and they make
11 me go to the bathroom about every 15 to 20
12 minutes. So I didn't take them this morning,
13 knowing I was going to be here. Now, I don't 14 know how long I'm not supposed to take these 15 pills.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 JUROR NO. 0024: So whether that would
18 be --

19 THE COURT: That might be a hardship
20 for you?

21 JUROR NO. 0024: I don't know if I'm
22 not supposed to take them for three weeks at a
23 time. I don't know. He just said take one --
24 these two pills every morning.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Let me come back to

1 that. Is there another card here? Yes, sir.
2 5895.

3 JUROR NO. 5895: My wife and I have
4 planned and paid for a cruise that will start
5 Sunday, June 10th, seven days, and then two 6 more days in New York after that.

7 THE COURT: I will excuse you.

8 JUROR NO. 5895: Thank you. My wife
9 thanks you.

10 MR. MCGETTIGAN: May I ask the number,
11 Your Honor?

12 MR. AMENDOLA: 5895.

13 THE COURT: 5895. And I'll excuse
14 you, sir, because of your medical conditions as 15 well. Anybody else in that section?

16 Okay, this section? 3487. Yes,
17 ma'am.

18 JUROR NO. 3487: My father just had a
19 stroke and he's in a nursing home, and my 20 mother just had a pacemaker put in, so I take 21 care of her.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So this would be a
23 hardship not only on you, but on both of them.
24 I will excuse you.

25 Anybody else in that section? Okay.

1 Anybody else? 4781.

2 JUROR NO. 4781: My aforementioned
3 daughter-in-law expects me to babysit the three
4 grandkids for the summer, and she found that it
5 would be a hardship to find a new babysitter at 6 this late notice, but --

7 THE COURT: What do you think about
8 that?

9 JUROR NO. 4781: It's probably a
10 hardship, but it probably can be done.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Then I won't excuse
12 you.

13 JUROR NO. 4781: I didn't think you
14 would.

15 THE COURT: Anybody else? Yes, ma'am.
16 4311.

17 JUROR NO. 4311: We paid for a family
18 vacation that starts on June 17th and goes
19 until the 30th, and that includes 10 people of 20 our family with three generations.

21 THE COURT: I'll excuse you as a
22 family hardship. Okay. Yes, ma'am.

23 JUROR NO. 0091: Question.

24 THE COURT: Yes. 0091.

25 JUROR NO. 0091: I have a hearing

1   impediment. I thought I could manage it. I
2   think I mentioned it in my survey, but I can't
3   hear three-quarters of the people here. I can
4   hear parts of what they say and not other
5   parts. I don't think I would be a fair juror.

6           THE COURT: Okay. I'll excuse you.
7   Thank you. I'll excuse you.

8           JUROR NO. 0091: Thank you, Your
9   Honor.

10          THE COURT: Okay. Yes, sir. 2197.

11          JUROR NO. 2197: I'm closing on a
12   house on the 28th. I'm just throwing it out
13   there. I don't know if -- I'm sure we can work
14   around that.

15          THE COURT: Okay. I'll bet you can.
16   I'll call the lawyers for you.

17          Okay. Those of you that I have
18   excused, you are free to go. You can leave.
19   The rest of you, what we will do is I will keep 20   you here now, and we're going to take you one
21   at a time in the order that you were called.
22   So 2658 -- I hate doing this by numbers. I'm 23   sorry, but -- you know, it's not my style, but 24   we are trying to preserve your privacy. That's 25   why we're doing that. And we'll just go right

1 down the list. The office is right across the
2 hall. You can make yourself comfortable here.
3 You can get up and stretch and walk around, and
4 we will be moving through this as quickly as we 5 can.

6 Thank you all very much so far, and we
7 will see you in a few minutes.
